

Gifts that expand the imagination for young children

- Brief case filled with stamps, envelopes, writing pads, pens, pencils, etc. to pretend office play
- Plungers of different sizes and shapes for using on all kinds of surfaces
- Flashlights of different sizes and beams for nighttime adventures and shadow making
- Measuring tapes/rulers for discovering lengths and sizes of everything in sight
- Suitcase filled with dress up clothes add capes, boots, tutus, pirate patches, slippers, slippers, boots, umbrella, etc.
- Blocks scrapes of wood (sanded and smoothed) from lumber yards of different sizes and shapes for construction and building
- Sheets, Blankets and Curtains for tent making adventures, include clothespins clips, etc.
- Masking Tape include rolls of masking tape of different colors and widths for taping whatever they think needs to be hung, guarded or prevented
- Book Bundles classic books that can be bundled into travel books, just before bed books, outside books, books that are gross and fun

HAPPY HOLIDAYS